LETTER FROM FAIRFAX.
[Correspondence of Alexandria Gazette.]
FRANCONIA STATION, W. S. R. R.,
Apr. 16, 1895.—The closing exercises of public school No. 7, Mt. Vernon District, conducted during the past six months by Miss Fannie Weadon as principal, with Miss Lelia Beatty as assistant, came off at the school building this evening and it was an occasion of much interest, not only to the pupils themselves, but also to their friends who were present in large numbers. The two teachers named were assisted by Miss Maggie Kerby, teacher of a public school at Cameron, and well did she perform that duty. The interior of the building was tastefully decorated with evergreens and ivy and presented a most pleasing appearance. The evening's entertainment began with the filing in of seven boys of the school, each one bearing a letter covered with ivy spelling out the word "welcome," repeating the same in concert. "The New Mittens" was recited by Bathurst, Sims; "A Boy's Pocket," by Albert Broders; "A Loving Little Girl," by Miss Tot Grehan; "Buy my Dolls," by Miss Dora Simms; "When the Crops Land," by Robert Sells; "Grandma's Angel," by Miss Sells; "When it Comes to the Pitch," by Herbert Hirst; Dialogue, by Ray and Roy Lambert, after which "A Boy's Complaint" was recited by Ernest Sells; "Harvey's Arithmetic," by John Snyder; "Small Dressmaking," by Miss Margie Hirst; "Boys' Rights," by J. Lambert; "The First Letter," by Miss Mamie Rogers; "The Sick Dollie," by Miss Mary Lambert; "The Little Ones," by Miss Carrie Lambert; "The Curlew Shall Not Ring to-night," by Miss May Hirst; "Watching for Crumbs," by Miss Mary Lambert; and a "Girl of the Period," by Misses Phoebe Gillingham, Norma Talbert and Julia Sheldon. All the participants acquitted themselves well. An amusing comedy of errors, entitled the "Country School," participated in by a number of the scholars of both sexes followed. We would mention some of those taking part: Compositions on Bones and Boys, by Ned Grehan and Herbert Hirst, respectively; parody on the Old Oaken Bucket by Miss Elton Bowling, another on Maud Mulder by Miss Martha Lyles. While the different classes were called on for their recitations and the mistakes purposely made, it carried us back to our school boy days, when each one had to give some verbal or written excuse for tardiness and the punishment meted out to all such. Miss Kerby played the part of pedagogue most capably to the great delight of those present and with entire self possession. The visit of the examining committee and the drill by the school by them was most ludicrous in the extreme. Those exercises being completed the entire school were then treated to a liberal supply of cake, confectionery, &c., and this came to an end this most pleasant affair. The Misses Weadon and Beatty are to be commended for the high state of excellence they have given to this school, and we are sure their efforts have met with most signal success. The District school board will do well to appoint them again as teachers the next session. "So mote it be."

Our better halves say they could not keep house without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is used in more than half the homes in Leeds.—[Sims Bros., Leeds, Iowa. This shows the esteem in which that remedy is held where it has been sold for years and is well known. Mothers have learned that there is nothing so good for colds, croup and whooping cough; that it cures these ailments quickly and permanently, and that it is pleasant and safe for children to take. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by L. Stabler & Co.]
